GOSSIP OF THE HORSES.

PREPARATIONS GOING ON FOR VIGOROUS RACING CAMPAIGN.

How Some of the Candidates for the Breek lyn Handleap Look - Declare Growing Popular for the Rich Gravesend Prize-Jimmy Lamly Reports for Duty-The Trotting Horse Men Secoming Active.

Horsemen are getting their charges ready for the campaign of 1805, which has already begun at St. Asaph, near Washington, but many of the cracks will not be seen in public until the opening of the Brooklyn Jockey Club's meeting at Gravesend, which is scheduled as usual to begin on May 15, when the Brooklyn Handicap and the Expectation Stakes will be run. A number of the horses that are entered in the Brooklyn will run at St. Asaph, but such horses as Sir Walter, Rubicon, Ramapo, and highflyers of that stamp, will hardly sport slik before they are asked to put forth their best efforts for the Gravesend prize. One hears a good deal of Rubicon and Sir

Walter, and these game performers are doing as well as anybody can desire. Of Ramapo re ports are conflicting, but everybody hopes to see this gallant performer in quite his old form again this season. John Hyland is an accomplished nurse, and if anybody can get the son of Pontiac to a race it will be the man who steered Milesian to victory in the days when the big horse was invincible over timber and would give the best of them an argument on the flat. horse that a great many persons have an eye on even since the weights for the Brooklyn appeared is Philip J. Dwyer's good four-yearold Declare that is nicely weighted at 106 pounds. As a two-year-old in 1893 Declare could ot best Domino, Dobbins, Henry of Navarre, or Hornnine, but he could day in and day out hold his own with the rest of them. Last spring he went lame and did not appear until late in the season, when he performed well at Morris Park and St. Asaph. With 106 pounds up, and especially in heavy going, Declare will not be the last in the race. He is carrying a lot of flesh this spring, but Frank McCabe is confident that he will be ready by May 15. Yesterday morning Declare worked half a mile in 57 seconds, and could have gone much faster had he been called upon to do so. It is a pity that this colt has such crooked hind legs, for otherwise he is a model. Patrician, in P. J. Dwyer's string, has wintered well, and is as big as a little bull. The bright particular stars, however, as has already been mentioned in THE SUN, are the filly Axiom, by Maxim, out of Touche Pas, and the colt Handspring, by Hanover. The filly is the fastest two-yearold at Gravesend, and the colt is not far behind her. Jimmy Lamly, who is to ride for Mr. Dwyer this year, reported for duty yesterday He is more than anxious to get to work again after almost a year of enforced idleness. He will be able to ride at about 100 pounds, and should be one of the best boys out at his weight this year, particularly if he listens to Frank McCabe and will give up the bad habit he had of looking over his shoulder when he was in front.
The racing public eagerly awaits any news from Albany concerning the Percy-Grey heasure, and there will be some jubilation when the bill becomes a law. As one horseman but it vesterday:

and Attention. 98: Lady Lawrence, 97: Hers, Lu Turmer and Henry H. 95.

The gathering of horse owners and road drivers at Fleetwood Park yesterday was a reminder that the opening of the trotting season is almost at hand. With warm sunshine and good roads combined to make a spin behind a fast horse enjoyable, an unusual number of club members drove out to the track during the morning, some of them registering their first appearance since the trotters went into winter quarters last November. A good share of the visitors, too, either sut behind new road horses or else had some fresh fiyer or another to tell about in the gossip of the day.

Frederick Steinway waxed eloquent over the many good qualities of Etta Wilkes, 2:15%, a young mare that he picked up at Kellogg's last sale for $350. She is by Guy Wilkes, 2:15%, out of Libbie B., by Winthrop, and her grandam is the daughter of thoroughbred Jack Hawkins, that produced Balkan, 2:15, and other fast ones.
Mr. Steinway said he had been almost afraid to buy the mare on account of her low selling price, and expected to find that she was either unsound or in some other way undesirable, but he has been agreeably disappointed, as the hand.

price, and expected to find that she was either unsound or in some other way undesirable, but he has been agreeably disappointed, as the handsome Californian proved to be both perfectly sound and perfectly mannered on the road. Mr. Steinway is driving Etta Wilkes to pole with Quickstep, a speedy young mare by Lexington Chief, Jr., and they make one of the neatest of the many fine pole teams to be seen on the road at present.

Another lucky buyer at the Kellogg sale was John C. Stratton, a prominent member of the Driving Club and the owner of Chester. Star Motion, and other fast trotters. For 3370 he secured the brown mare Kitty Cobb, by Humor, 2120, from Jenny Cobb, 213054, whose dam was a full siter to the ex-champion stallion Maxie Cobb. Kitty Cobb was formerly owned by D. S. Hammond of the Murray Hill Hotel, and she trotted for him last season in 21264, moving the last quarter in 3445 seconds, a 2118 gait. Mr. Stratton intends to have her trained still further this year, believing she will learn to beat 2120. At present he is driving her in double harness with Chester, one of the fastest pole horses in the city, and sithough hitched together only a few times, they have given some of the crack teams the go-by out the Ridge road.

With the black mare Jewettess as a mate for his favorite old gray trotter Lady Hartford, Gen. Jacob Baiz, Vice-President of the Driving Club, now has a noticeably fine road team. Jewettess is a recent purchase at the combination sales. She is by Patchen Wilkes, the siraof Joe Patchen, 2:0d, while her mate is by liartford, the sire of Robert J., 2:0135, so that either mare is closely related to one of the fasteet pacers on the turf.

Of all the trotting teams at Fleetwood yesterday none came in for more attention than Simon Godenburg's newly matched pair, Diamond and liderion, two bays of very fine color, conformation, and style. At the request of some of nis rends the owner of the new pair stopped them though the komestretch at speed showing a good strong 2:30 gait and a way of yoing which evoked high typalse from the men on the club Louse piazza. Illerim was purchased a few needs ago from D. O. Wright. He is a model pole horse, never making a break, and he trotted a mile double with Richard F. Sear's Corrinne hat year in 2:234, the first time the two were highed together.

F. selerick Gerken, bot fully recovered from the effects of the severe s at present.

Another lucky buyer at the Kellogg sale was fine-looking team that he has recently put together. Astoria has a mark of 2:30, and she is by Kentucky Wilkes, 2:2134, while Truant is her full brother. Mr. Gerken's noted pair, Stoneridge and Little Sport, are to be brought in from the country this week and put in shape for fast work.

Tom and Jerry, the stately team of chestnut geldings driven by Gabe Case, were among the fine pairs on parade. Both horses are full 10 hands high, round turned, and powerfully muscled, and either animal, single or double, can trota 2:30 gait on the road. Major S. T. Dickinson was out with his fast mare Cocoon, 2:16, by Cyclen, to a light one-man wagon. Cocoon has just arrived from George Starr's training stable at Terre Haute. She is as fat as a seal, and all in all one of the handsomest trotters to be seen on the road.

H. R. Murray drove a notable new road horse in Foster, a three-year-old full brother to Ora, 2:164, by Sprague Golddust, 2:164, out of the old mare Mainie, by Blue Buil. Mr. Murray let the youngster step along to road wagon at a clip which preclaimed him a sure-enough truster. The track at Fleetwood was stripped of the last vestige of its winter covering by the hurricans which struck this city last week, and it is now in the finest possible condition for the trainers to work their horses on. As yet, however, nothing has been done beyond slow miles and an occasional brush of an eighth or a quarter at half speed. A few of the flyers were out yesterfay, but nothing very fast resulted. Frederick Steinway broke the track record thus far this season by sending his young mare Bessie R., by France, a quarter in 38 seconds.

Aaron Fowler worked Fred Gerken's converted trotter Vidalia at quarter speed. The daughter of Abdallah Wilkes has rounded up and filled out finely during the winter, and she promises to be one of the fastest pacers in the East this year. Isaac Fleming was in the sulky behind the fast filly Arcenta, a bloodlike-looking pacer that is booked for a record close to 2:10 in 1895.

Several new trainers are expected to join those now at the track before the close of the present week. Edwin Bither, the driver of Jay-Eye-See and Kremlin, has written that he and his partner, E. C. Walker, will be on hand with the hig string of trotters and pacers which they are to train, and John Kelly of Directum fame will begin work with nearly a dozen good ones that he has engaged to handle for James Butler of this city.

TRACK GALLOPS AT LEXINGTON.

Thoroughbreds Do Some Fast Work in Preparation for Coming Events. LEXINGTON, Ky., March 31,-The weather was summerlike this morning. Every thoroughbred in training at the Association track here was sent along in his work, and the fastest moves o the season were made. Lieut, Jackson's pair of maidens, both three-year-olds, by Duke of Montrose and Logic, worked three-quarters together with 110 pounds up in 1:16%, the bes time made at the distance here this spring. The Devil covered the same distance in 1:17.

Byron McClelland's horses all took fast work except Cesarion, who had received a let up. Will Wallace brushed the Commoner and several of his two-year-olds through the stretch at a lively gait. The strings of the Bradley brothers and Crater brothers moved well, but no sensational time was made. The Straus stable, comprising twenty two-year-olds, received strong work, preparatory to their shipment to Sheepshead Bay this week. The stables ment to Sheepshead Baythls week. The stables of Joe Chinn and Lieut. Jackson are far advanced, as are the Iroquois and Himyar stables. The hard winter seemed to put the horses in better fix for training than usually, and although there has been but little time for preparation it is the general opinion of the best taient that the Southern horses will meet their matches at the Lexington spring meeting. Gus Straus has gone to Little Rock, where he has Shieldbearer in the Derby and a two-year-old in the Capital Stakes. Ed Groves accompanied him. Harry Landeman and Milt Thompson left for Nashville to-day, and Eugene Porter went to Memphis.

Black Hawk" Knocks Out Tommy Smith

An interesting programme delighted quite a crowd of aports at the regular monthly stag of the Veronica A. C., held on Saturday night in the rooms of the club, 523 West Twenty-sixth street. Billy Lee, the light weight, was referee, while Barney Mack was timekeeper. The sport Jim Brophy, Hudson River A. C., and Jack pounds. The referee picked Brophy as a winner. The next "go," limited to six rounds, was The next "go," limited to six rounds, was very exciting. The principals were Tommy Smith and "Black Hawk." The latter, although stocklip built and strong, did not know as much about the game as Smith. It looked like a "cinch" for Smith up to the fourth round. He punched his man when and where he pleased. Just before time was called in this round "Black Hawk" smashed Smith on the point of the jaw, and the white man toppied over, completely knocked out.

The wind-up was between Billy McAdams and J. Katan, two 125-pounders. The men fought the limit, eight rounds. Katan, who stands like Fitzsimmons, is a tremendous puncher, and every time he hit his man his opponent went down. McAdams made a spurt in the last three rounds and had Katan rattled. The bout went to McAdams.

THE HARLEM ALIVE WITH OARSMEN Mild Weather Gives the Scallers a Chan-to De Vigorous Work,

The Harlem earsmen were out in force yesterday afternoon. The water was as smooth as a mirror the whole day long. The two clubs most in evidence were the Dauntless and Unions. In the morning Rosenheim and Fortesque in a double gig. Charley Weeks in a single shell, Tucker and McNell in a double shell, and Kniepe and Devoe in a coxswain gig were out from the Dauntless. In the afternoon several single gigs and an eight-oared shell crew were affoat from the same club. Of the Unions Cassidy and Farrelly showed up in a double gig. and Hefferman and Cavanagh in single gigs, During the afternoon an eight-oared shell crew and Hefferman and Cavanagh in single gigs, During the afternoon an eight-oared shell crew was sent affoat. It was composed of Veight, bow: Pawzie. 2; Hoyle, 3; Connell, 4; Cavanagh, 5; Burke, 6; Van Zant, 7; Wolff, stroke; Saulapaugh, coxswain, Wolff was also out in a single gig for a pull of three or four miles. The Atalantas were represented by several shell crew and several singles and doubles. The Wyanokes had an eight-oared barge affoat and a couple of single gigs. The Metropolitans sent an eight-oared shell crew and several singles and doubles. The Wyanokes had an eight-oared barge affoat and a couple of single gigs. The Metropolitans sent an eight-oared shell and a four-oared shell crew to Bronson's, and the Bohemians had out their crack senior eight-oared shell crew and a six and four-oared barge crew.

Joe Maher of last year's Wyanokes has joined the Harlem Rowing Club. He will row with Clarence Maze in the junior doubles in the Harlem regatta.

Owing to business affairs, it is thought that Tucker and McNeil of the Dauntless Club will be unable to row in the junior doubles in the Harlem regatta. Rosenheim and Farjerr, it is understood, will take their places. William Mulcare will represent the Dauntless Club in the senior singles, and will double up with his brother or with Tucker for the senior doubles.

At a special meeting of the trustees of the Union Boat Club, held yesterday at the boat house, it was decided to change the colors of the Club. A committee of three was appointed to decide on the new colors and report at the next meeting of the Board. The colors most favored are a plain white shirt, with a club emblem on the breast, and black rowing pants.

The Metropolitan Rowing Club expects to be represented in the Harlem regatts by a junior single, and a junior four-oared shell crew. A meeting of the club will be held this evening at the boat house.

and a junior four-oarea shell crow. A meeting of the club will be held this evening at the boathouse.

The house of the Harlem Rowing Club was a busy place, half a dozen workmen being busy jaying a new floor. The improvement is a gift from Jim Pilkington. Fred Hawkins was the only member of the Harlems on the water yesterday. He took a puil of two or three miles in a single gig. Capt. Nagle has a number of men in training, however, and says the club will be well represented in all the regattas of the senson. In the Harlem regatta its entries will include Clarence Mass in the junior singles, Fred Hawkins in the senior singles, Clarence Mass and Joseph Matthews in the junior doubles, John Heraty and Frank Hanham in the intermediate doubles, and John Nagle and Fred Hawkins in the senior doubles. There will also be a junior and senior four-oared crew, made up as follows: How, Albert Hogart; 2, Palmer Wilson; 3, J. McManus; stroke, Fred Hawkins. There may also be a senior four.

NOW FOR REAL BASEBALL

THE NEW YORKS ARRIVE HOME FROM THEIR SOUTHERN TRIP.

Three Thousand Cranks Welcome Them as They Leave the Steamer-They Are All Sunburned and Look to Be in Fine Shape Manager Davis Talks About the Work The New Yorks are home again and will begin final preparations for the great League cham pionship race at the Polo grounds to-day. They oft Norfolk at 7 o'clock Saturday night on the steamer Jamestown of the Old Dominion line and arrived at Pier 26, North River, yesterday afternoon at 3:80 o'clock. Probably no such welcome was ever accorded to a New York base ball team, except possibly when the champions under Jim Mutrie returned here from the Wes in the fall of 1889. It is safe to say that there were 3,000 persons packed in a dense mass in front of the entrance to the pier, and it kept several policemen busy to keep a passageway clear.

Secretary H. A. Bonnell and Superintendent A. H. Bell were the only officials of the club on hand to greet the boys, President Freedman being unavoidably detained by a business appointment. Shortly after 3 o'clock the steamer was sighted down the river, and as she drew near the players were seen grouped together in the bow. While the steamer was backing into the dock ex-Manager John M. Ward appeared to shake hands with his old comrades. The men showed evidence of hard work in the South, and were in the best of spirits. Manager Davis was the last man to leave the ateamer. He was weighted down with two heavy valises and wore a big diamond in his shirt. The crowd surged around him at once and he was soon under a heavy fire of questions. After shaking hands with a score of per-sons he marshalled his men together for a plunge through the crowd out in West street When the players emerged from the pier ensons he marshalled his men together for a plunge through the crowd out in West street. When the players emerged from the pier entrance the scene was of the wildest description. There was cheer after cheer, and hats were thrown to the winds. Ward and Stafford were almost mobbed. Manager Davis went to the club's office at 19 Cortiandt street, where he expressed himself as follows to The Sun reporter:

"We are all glad to get back, but the trip has done us a world of good. The weather in Jacksonville was of the right sort for ball playing, but since leaving there we have encountered some cold waves that have somewhat pulled us back. To-day's weather is the best we have struck since leaving Florida. Of course, we have not met very strong teams in the South, but I am candid in saying that the men are in magnificent physical condition and ready for the championship season to begin.

"I want to speak of each player separately, so as to do them all justics. Rusie has shown that he means to be in shape to pitch winning ball from the start. He has been so anxious to let himself out that I have had to caution him more than once. His arm is in perfect trim. His batting, too, has been simply terrific, and so has Meekin's. The latter is also in superb shape.

"I have recason to feel happy over German. I have never seen him in such good form before. If he continues the showing he has made he will undoubtedly be used regularly with Rusie and Meekin. Dad Clarke has also been pitching very well. Knauss has nursed his arm considerably, and under my instructions has not tried any swift pitching. I know nothing of Boswell, but if he can pitch he will be retained, too. Farrell and Wilson are both ready to jump into the game. They have been catching finely, and, above all, hitting the ball for keeps. I am anxious to secure Schriver from Chicago, providing he is in proper condition to play ball. Smith did excellent work until he dislocated his finger. We will keep him for the present. Jack Doyle is all right, and is playing first base

Boston team two to one before the season is over.

"The team will begin practice at the Polo grounds to-morrow murning at 10 o'clock. At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon the men will do some more work, but no game will be played before Wednesday, when we open with the Jaspers. The trip was not profitable financially, but the club did not expect it would be. While in the South we played under the new rules, and the foul-tip strike worked well on several occasions. I think that John Connelly will unpire the exhibition games."

German will arrive to-day with his wife. Dayis left for his home in Cohees and will not be back until to-morrow. Doyle meanwhile will be in charge of the team.

THE N. T. A. C.'S TACRISMEN Getting Ready for a Lively Season at Pel-

PELHAM MANOR, March 31.-The addition to the racht club house has been made. It will contain a room for Andrew Larsen, who has charge of the yachting department of the New York A. C., of which there are some 260 members and fifty yachts. Among the yachts in the club that are getting ready to go overboard are Chin-Chin, a 15-rater which will go to Barnegat Bay, having been sold to a Mr. Coddington of that place. Chin Chin was built on the Clyde Minstrel, the fingship of the N. Y. A. C., will go over on April 20. Then there are C. Turner's Alpha, Rathburne's Io, Hayden's Nomad, C. E. Knobloch's Bonny Kate, Bronson's Trochelis, Roe,s Aurania, Weissner's Greta, Born's Marjorie, Griswold's Ventura, D. Walk's Chesa

Roes Aurania, Weissner's Greta, Born's Marjorie, Griswold's Ventura, D. Walk's Cheenpeake Hav sharpis Jane S., and F. Hunter's Britannia.

An additional acre will be filled in about this cove, which will allow for more room for boats to lie during the winter. Two new sets of ways will be built at once to aid in getting the boats overboard. The vachting members are determined to have as good a time this year as their racing friends of the canoes and other smail boats. The yacht club house will therefore be ready by the lat of May. The canoe or shell house contains six racers and twenty-six smail boats. Four new racing shells will be added.

Two new tennis courts will be constructed, and the running track increased from one-fifth to a quarter of a mile.

Chairman Foote of the Shooting Committee will have the grounds near the club house provided with new traps, and clay pigeon shooting will also be a feature.

The anticipated visit of the Englishmen about August is producing a marked activity in the various departments of the club, and Jacob Schwind, who is the manager, says the club will have an unquestionably brisk season. The club house is now being thoroughly renovated. It has now an extra acre of a lawn in front, which adds greatly to the appearance of the building, as viewed from the bay or Glen Island.

The New Cup Defender's Mast Is Nearly

CITY ISLAND, March 31.-The cup defender's mast is being hollowed out in the large glass root workshop here. It is thought that it will be read; for polishing in a week. The spars and topmast are completed. Watchmen are on duty at the yard, and visitors are not admitted. Plepgrass will not give information regarding the length of the stick at present. He says it will be time enough when the boat is launched.

BURGLAR ALARMS WEST OFF. People Awakened in Jersey City at a Very

There was a deal of excitement about 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the vicinity of Jersey avenue, York and Montgomery streets, ersey City. The houses in the neighborhood are occupied by wealthy people, and they think that there were burglars around in the early hours of the morning.

The burglar alarms in the houses of ex-Mayor Gilbert Collins, Col. Joseph D. Bedle, Dr. Hoffnan, and Dr. Parsons were rung. Dr. Parsons called up the American District Telegraph ffice. Special Policeman Smith saw a man coming out of Dr. Hoffman's basement and arcoming out of Dr. Hoffman's basement and ar-rested him. The prisoner gave his name as John Jamison and said he lived at 250 Wayne street. He was under the influence of liquor and indig-nantiv denied that he was a burgiar, although he admitted that he might have been at the houses mentioned.

There was no further disturbance in the neigh-borhood after Jamison was arrested, and every-body was able to go to sleep ngain. Jamison will have an examination in Police Justice Potts's court this morning.
